

Vertebral fracture (newly diagnosed) management for secondary fracture prevention

*A fracture sustained from a fall of standing height or less, or a force not normally expected to cause fracture